Community Relations:

During the month of February patrol officers logged 44 different Community Policing/Relations efforts throughout the town. These contacts include speaking to business employees/owners in the Barrington Shopping Center, checking different marinas, speaking to walkers on the East Bay Bike Path, Veteran's Park, stopping by our school basketball courts and playgrounds. Cub Scout and Brownie Troop tours at the Police Station usually occur twice a month. Some officers have allowed children to view their police cars and use the lights and siren as we strive to enhance better Police relations with our community.

On March 22, 23, 24 and 25th, Officer Dianne Pinto and her sister JoAnne Waite held a RAD Self-Defense class at the Barrington High School. Approximately 17 females participated, some of which were mother-daughter teams.

A good strike to the head by a mother under attack by a Cumberland police officer.
